President's Corner

When you receive this month's issue, Folk Dance Federation Officers for the coming twelve months will have been installed at San Diego Statewide '99, Memorial Day Weekend. Please join with me in wishing them a positive & productive term of office.

Past years have shown that Federation has limitations. It is not a business like IBM, General Motors, or Microsoft. Officers and Chairmen are not high salaried execs. They are unpaid volunteers who are trying to unite and promote folk dancing by following the basic directives expected of them.

Making decisions for the benefit of many that have different needs requires inventiveness and cultured diplomacy. A happy balance is not always possible when dealing with diversified groups who have separate agendas.

The world is in a period of rapid change. Innumerable developments offer us limitless challenges. Considering this, how can we make an evening of folk dancing the electrifying event it was when we first began to participate?

- Does your folk dance group sound exhilarating when you mention it to others?
- Does your dancing look like fun to visitors?
- Do you and the other dancers seem to be enjoying yourself as you dance?
- Do you personally welcome & help newcomers?

Why should others want to join us? Although we cannot generate interest in folk dancing by enacting legislation, we can exhibit the thrill of the dance with every step we take.

We can help others to make the inspiring discovery when they observe and participate with us. We can "sell" folk dancing by displaying pleasure and enthusiasm.

When next we meet on the dance floor, let us exchange knowing glances about what we share.

Folk Dancing is special!

WELCOME STEVE AND JATILA

Starting with this issue we are fortunate to have the layout and design of Folk Dance Scene done by Steve Davis and Jatila van der Veen. These Santa Barbara people have volunteered to put their vast knowledge of computers to use to save us from doing a manual cut-and-paste as was done last issue. We thank them for their hard work and welcome them to the team.

CONTRIBUTIONS SOLICITED

No, not money, but information you'd like to share with other readers. Don't need to spend a lot of time writing long articles, one or two short paragraphs is fine. Thanks. Send to jillmichtom@juno.com. If you are not on E-mail, my address is: 10824 Crebs Ave. Northridge, CA 91326

ETHNIC FESTIVALS IN OAK PARK

There are four ethnic festivals in Santa Barbara (we've already missed the April and May ones) but we can still make the Irish Festival on June 5 & 6; the French Festival on July 17 & 18; the Greek Festival on July 31 & Aug 1; and the Festa Italiana on Aug. 21 & 22.

These are outdoors, have live music, dancing, entertainment, food and crafts. And it's free (except for the food and crafts you buy). The park is right off 101, and it's a lovely drive, mostly along the coast. For more information, and directions to Oak Park, call Lorraine Cruz at (805) 564-5419.

NARODNI NEWS

Narodni International Folkdancers of Long Beach invites beginners, especially children, to come and learn how to folk dance. We will start from the very beginning with easy folk dances from Russia, Germany, Balkans, Israel, France, Austria, Japan, and many more. All are welcome and we would especially like to encourage families to come together so parents can learn too. We also invite, grandparents, uncles, aunts, cousins, brother, sisters, school teachers and anyone else interested.

It will be $1 for children and $2 for adults with a maximum of $5 per family. Be there right at 7:30 pm or a little earlier as we plan to start right on time. Our regular program will continue at 8:30-10:30 pm with an all request evening.

Hope to see you all there! Any questions? Contact John at (562) 424-6377, ba737@lafn.org, or Carol 562-862-0521, cwall@ix.netcom.com, or the Narodni website at www.angelfire.com/ca/narodni.

Narodni International Folkdancers, California Heights United Methodist Church, 3759 Orange Ave. (Corner at Bixby), Long Beach, CA 90807, Thursday, 7:30pm. Family Night, Second Thursday of every month.

SUMMER IN LA

If you are planning to stay around L.A. this summer check out the Hollywood Bowl and Ford Theatre offerings - they sound very promising.

The Bowl presents classical music, jazz and special themes, some with fireworks on Tuesdays through Saturdays. The Sunday series is sure to appeal to your love of international music and dance.

Performances include a Tango orchestra and dancers, African rhythms and dance, Gypsy music from it's Asian origins to Flamenco and more.

You can contact the Bowl at (323) 850-2000, or on-line at www.hollywood.org.

Then "Summer Nights at the Ford" offers a rich array of performances to please every taste. One series, offering brunch while listening to the classics via string quartets, or instrumental soloists sounds delightful. There is also a classics series in the evenings. Dance performances include The Jazz Tap Ensemble, Danza Floricanto, Liam Harneys Irish Dance Company, Flamenco, Filipino Dance, the Black Ballet Jazz Dance, a guitarist and dancers from Puerto Rico, and, talk bout innovative, a presentation called "Viva Klezmer" a Jewish and Mariachi music all on one stage! There will even be some Bluegrass programs. For individual dates and

On the Scene

programs, see the Calendar in this issue of Scene, and/or phone (323) 461-3673, or on-line at www.lacounty.arts.org/Ford.html

CAN YOU HELP?

Master Polish Teacher Ada Dziewanowska published the definitive single-volume opus on Polish dance, and then compiled a set of two 90 minute cassettes containing all the music for that volume and more! Ada now wishes to preserve these dances on video.

Does any one have videos of Ada's dances? If so please send them to her at 3352 North Hackett Ave. Milwaukee, WI 53211, (414) 964-8444.

OJAI LIVE!

Sounds of live folk dance music filled the Ojai Art Center Saturday evening, April 24, as both beginners and experienced dancers enjoyed a spirited event. Linelle Glass of Santa Barbara provided instruction, accompanied by her band Kitchen Junket. Linelle, who grew up folk dancing (her father Buz Glass started the California Folk Dance Federation), taught beginners from 7 - 8 pm. She also taught a few intermediate dances, then rejoined the band as they continued to play music for dances familiar to most of the participants -- without instruction.

Kitchen Junket includes Carl Maganosc on keyboard, Rick Drake on mandolin, Kristina Eriksen on accordion, Sue Rudnicki on percussion, and Linelle on fiddle. The live music really made a difference. If I can think of one word to describe the gathering, I would choose joyful.

As the band packed up, Leo Smith accepted requests for dances on tapes, played on the stereo. Dancing continued to 11 p.m., closing with Ann Taylor's Silent Kolo and a spontaneous antiphonal Balkan song sung by three women with remarkable voices: Sue Rudnicki, Jana Julian and Stephanie Johnson. The dance was well-attended and we received so much positive feedback that we want to do it again!

SUMMER SOLSTICE IS BACK

On June 25, 26 & 27, the 17th annual Summer Solstice Folk Music, Dance and Storytelling will be presented by the California Traditional Music Society at Soka University in Calabasas. The festival begins Friday night at 7:30 with Contra Dance, Scary Storytelling, and Old Tyme Jam Session. Saturday and Sunday schedules begin at 10 AM and include various instrumental and singing workshops, jam sessions mini-concerts, and, of course a variety of dance classes including Contra/Square, Swing, Celtic, and Bulgarian, Romanian and Greek dances taught by Yves Moreau and Athan Karras. There will be French and French Canadian also. Plus many more dances from around the world - many that are not usually found in our repertoire - like Bolivian!

It is very important that we help preserve and keep alive traditional folk music (and musicians), dance, and related folk arts of America's diverse cultural heritage by supporting, attending and enjoying this very important festival. For Festival information: 818-342-song

There will be a booth at the festival on Saturday and Sunday to publicize Scene Magazine and Folk Dancing in general. We do need people to man (or woman) it. Federation Council agreed to give any person who spends an hour at the booth $10.00 - that's half the entry fee! For more info contact Rick and Lynn Bingle at (626) 914-4006.

JULYFEST IN SAN DIEGO

On Sunday, July 11th, San Diego International Folk Dance Club will sponsor its annual FREE 'JULYFEST' in the Balboa Park Club. The theme is patriotic with red, white and blue as the featured colors. There will be non-partner dances from 12:30-1:30, led by Juanita Lague, followed by the Festival from 1:30 to 5:00. Food and drinks will be available for all. Special performances will be at 3 pm.

The club meets Wednesday evenings in the same building. The first hour is for instruction in easy dances followed by intermediate dances and requests. The group is known to be fun loving friendly folks, who cordially welcome new dancers and they love to party for any excuse. During the past year they had several holiday parties, a "Taco Fixin" party, monthly birthday celebrations, and an annual Club anniversary party.

For the past 20 years the Club has sponsored a fun-filled Camp Cuyamaca weekend in November. Every 4th week the Club hosts the ever popular Sunday afternoon folk dances, a tradition the club began in the 1940's. On May 23rd we will host a Pre-Statewide outdoor dance program in the Park. Present officers of the Club include Linda Stuart, Virginia Davis, Margaret Knetzer, Niel Archibald, Fred Gregorio, and Max Englehard. Alice Stirling has been teacher of the class for many, many years with valuable assistance from husband Archie since 1970. The willingness of the members to cooperate and volunteer to help at all the events is what makes each activity a notable success. For Julyfest info, call Alice at (619) 422- 5540.

IN RETROSPECT-----

Westwood's festival in April was a big success. It was a pleasure to see Ed And Perle Feldman again. Some of us danced with Perle, and do you know what she said? She said it felt like coming home!

MUSIC OF THE JEWISH PEOPLE

LECTURE & DEMO, June 2, 1999 at 7:00 p.m.

LEARN & GO - The Classics, a free monthly classical music, opera, ballet and theater club founded by Ann Litvin, ethnic dance specialist and teacher, offers a special evening devoted to the music and dance of the Jewish people from the joyous klezmer refrains, of the Russian village, to the great classical composers, to Gershwin, Bernstein and other great 20th century names. Litvin is hosting this evening for all ages in honor of International Holocaust Remembrance month. This interactive evening of talk, video clips, group discussion and live klezmer demonstration will be held Wed., June 2 at 7:00 p.m. at the Jewish Community Center, 250 E. Baker in Costa Mesa. A fruit, cheese and dessert potluck will garnish the evening's festivities.

June/July 1999

The special speaker and performer for the evening will be Miamon Miller, a renowned ethno-musicologist and virtuoso musician. Miller's work with klezmer research and music is legendary. Additionally, a short tribute to Community Concerts Association, a non profit local organization entering its 54th year of offering inexpensive and top notch professional classical music performances will round out the evening. One lucky participant will receive the door prize of a free ticket to the magnificent La Traviata performance opening Opera Pacific's fall season. There is no charge for this special evening, and the public is invited to attend. RSVP's are strongly urged as there is limited seating. Call Ann Litvin at (714) 671-0707 or the Jewish Community Center at (714) 755-0340 to reserve.

Visit Other Federation Dance Groups:

Solvang Village Folk Dancers

Do you like to watch folk dancing as well as participating? Maybe when you visit Solvang for "Taste of Solvang" in March or "Danish Days" in September you might have that experience with the Solvang Village Dancers. It is fun to watch the group's performance, and later, dance with them at their regular Saturday night site in nearby Santa Ynez. Barbara, Chuck, David Heald and all the others are a friendly group who welcome visitors to join them dancing International Dances. Several of us have enjoyed doing just that. Why don't you?

WHICH KID ? YOU!

WHICH CAMP? SEE BELOW...

When summer comes, what better way is there to retreat to the woods for some renewal of body, mind, and spirit than at a folk dance camp? The Scene reviews some of the more popular camps for you to choose from...

MENDOCINO FOLKLORE CAMP

Twelve years ago, we began a love affair with Mendocino Folklore Camp. For us, Mendocino is pure fantasy. From our first day at camp we felt welcome. For one week we live, surrounded by redwoods, streams and ponds, in a tiny "seven dwarfs" cabin. It's amazing how Coleman lamps, curtains, and oriental rugs can create a home. Each day camp is transformed into a different country, period of time, or make-believe land.

Great teaching in the morning -- crafts, games, hiking, singing, special workshops, swimming, making a costume or helping turn the camp into a Bulgarian Village in the afternoon -- and then party time, with live music, for the rest of the night. Add great ethnic food and you have a week filled with friends, dancing, and lots of fun. Mendocino is what folk dancing is all about! This year camp will be held from June 19 to June 26. Contact person: Phyris Tobler (707) 795-6926.

YONI CARR'S ISRAELI CAMP

Camp Finjan-Hilula will be at UCSB (University of CA, Santa Barbara) on Sept. 3rd to the 6th 1999. This will be a Summer dance Jubilee of Israeli folk dancing, with 4 days of dancing and partying, and beginning, intermediate and advanced levels.

Some of the highlights of Finja-Hilula are: Stretch warm up every morning, about 13 dance sessions, cocktail and BBQ on the beach, dancing under the stars, and some surprises. End your summer with a blast! Teachers are: Avi Perez, choreographer of Keshenavo; Victor Gabay, known for his romantic couple dances; Nir Dor, a young rising star, he also writes the music to his dances; Israel Yakovee, with his famous dances Shufni, Agadelcha and much more. Israel is also the DJ of Finjan Hilula. Also, Yoni Carr, Camp Director and choreographer of Kineret Sheli, Banu Laasot Samech, and Dikar Al Machiba. All accommodations are suites, containing a living room, three bedrooms, and two baths, housing five people. Five minutes from beach. Mail to: Finjan-Hilula. 3044 Southwind Lane Vista CA, 92084, Phone: (760) 631-0802

L.I.F.E. GOES ON

Last month Scene inadvertently listed L.I.F.E. camp as being held again this year. Unfortunately that is not the case; we apologize for any inconvenience we caused. However, the good news is that L.I.F.E. camp will come back to LIFE next year. And this great camp is well worth waiting for.

STOCKTON FOLK DANCE CAMP

All plans are a go for the 52nd year at Stockton; an international village, in dances and attendance, with people coming from exotic locations like Japan, Brazil and Minnesota. Dance to great music until early in the morning, dress up for evening parties, be an early bird at the first classes of the day--whatever your style, there's something for you. The teaching for each week is the same, but if you want to catch it all, think about coming both weeks!

Credits: The cover sketch of the scenic Mendocino Woodlands and the caricatures of Andor Czompo and Joe Graziosi were done by the late Jim Brown. The Woodlands are the site of many folk dance weeks, including Folklore, Scandia, Hungarian, Balkan and Lark in the Morning. Jim Brown was a folk dancer and artist from San Francisco who was a regular at Mendocino Folklore Camp and an ardent Camp supporter. Many of his beautiful sketches and water colors depict the camp and its activities (used by permission from Mendocino Folklore Camp).

Cover Story

Having all of the camp participants in one dorm was very popular last year. We can sleep, eat, and have the Tiger Lounge in the same building. The Lounge features one of our dance class spaces, our daily assemblies, and the after parties each evening. We are still working with temporary facilities for our main dance hall. The university is putting AC into part of the dorm, and hopefully it will be available this year.

Folk Dance Camp is an opportunity for a great global village experience. People in the Stockton Folk Dance Camp village are there to meet friends, learn new dances and dance skills, study costumes, buy costumes, sing, play musical instruments, reminisce and look forward to years to come. Why do you dance? Whatever your favorite part about dancing is, you'll find it at Folk Dance Camp.

For more information, see the advertisement in this month's Scene, or check out the web site at <http://www.folkdance.com/stockton> where you'll find a registration form, a virtual tour of the campus, plus information on teachers and activities.

NEW MEXICO CAMP

Surroundings were fun....lots of historical, "old west" type of buildings in the process of restoration. Especially fun was an old hotel next to the train station....people could get off the train and walk straight into the hotel. Gave a real sense of what it would have been like in 'yesteryears'....it's probably even further restored by now, so people going to the camp should take a short amount of time to visit it.

The camp itself had a few features I really liked. One was having concurrent beginning and intermediate classes by one of the two teachers in one room and advanced/'challenging' classes given by the other teacher in another room. Then they would swap, giving an opportunity to choose the level and the teacher they wanted.

Another feature is a 'camp band' that includes any or all campers that want to be included. They rehearse every day and then play for part of the evening party every night. The evening parties have themes, and the room(s) are decorated with the help of willing campers. Decorating sessions were a lot of fun and a good way for people who don't already know many other campers to at least meet and 'play' together with a bunch of others.

Something else Marvin and I noticed about the camp is that the average age of the camper is somewhere between 30-40 years old. So, there are a lot of long, lively dance sessions. On the interesting side, most of the dances we have in common with the New Mexico groups are danced at least in double time....imagine doing Bohemian National Polka twice as fast as we do it!

LARK IN THE MORNING

From July 30th to Aug. 7th you will find an intensive, lively immersion into music, dance and good times in the magical redwood forest of the Mendocino Woodlands. There are workshops for beginners to advanced in folk instruments, singing, dancing, and amazingly diverse workshops.

The food is excellent. Accommodations are either log cabins (with fireplaces and wood!) or tent camping. The accent is on music, but folkdancers will find their niche. There are nightly dance parties on the wooden floor in the rustic dance hall. Also live music, costumes (or not) campfires each night- - - and the heavenly smell of the redwoods. Try it - you'll like it Be prompt, camp fills up FAST. P.O.Box 1176 Mendocino, CA 95460, (707) 964-5569, FAX (707)964-1979, e-mail: larkinam@larkinam.com

MAINEWOODS FD CAMP

Formerly known as Maine Camp, it has now been at a new location for a few years. The Camp s on a lake, and there is time for swimming and boating. There are 6 one-week sessions, plus Labor Day weekend; different teachers each time (see ad for specifics). In addition to the lovely setting, there is good food, a very friendly crowd, and a sort of laid-back fun-oriented approach to new dances. Add parties, lobsters for lunch, a hot tub, some costumes and a talent show, and you have a great week.

Ethnic Foods

In this month's Scene, we feature three savory soups for summer, adaptable for all dietary preferences, from vegan to carnivorous, depending on what broth you use as the base. Sandy Helperin prefers Hain's fat free vegetable broth and recommends Trader Joe's for their great selection of broths for all tastes.

Jatila

ROASTED CARROT AND GARLIC SOUP

1 1/4 lbs carrots
3 cloves garlic
1 Tbsp olive oil
salt and pepper
1 onion
3 1/2 cups vegetable broth
2 Tbsp whipping cream (optional-I omitted)
1-2 t. lemon juice

Cut carrots 1/2 " thick and toss with olive oil. Place on baking sheet and season with salt and pepper. Roast for 10 minutes at 500 degrees. Cut onion into wedges and add to carrots, stirring to coat with oil, and continue roasting about 10 more minutes. Put vegetables in a blender with broth, and puree. Pour into saucepan and heat. Add cream, if using and lemon juice, stir and serve. Serves 4

TARRAGON PEA SOUP

11/2 lbs onions, peeled and chopped
1 Tbsp minced garlic
2 Tbsp butter or butter substitute
1 qt broth

3/4 lb. russet potatoes, peeled and chopped
1 1/2 lb. frozen petite peas
3 Tbsp chopped fresh tarragon
1/8-1/4 t. cayenne
salt and pepper

Saute onions, garlic and butter in a 6 quart pan, over medium heat, for about 10 minutes. Add broth and potatoes. Cover and simmer about 20 minutes. Stir in peas and tarragon. Add cayenne to taste. Using a blender, whirl a little at a time. Return to pan and stir over high heat. Season with salt and pepper. Serves 6.

Sandy Helperin

ANDALUZ GAZPACHO

3 cloves garlic, minced
1 large onion, sliced
1cucumber, diced
4 large tomatoes, peeled
2 tsp. salt
1 tsp. ground cumin seed
1/8 tsp. cayenne pepper
1/4 cup red wine vinegar
1/4 cup olive oil
1 bouillon cube

Dissolve bouillon cube in 3/4 cup hot water...pour into blender or food processor. Add garlic, onion, tomatoes and cucumber. Whirl on high speed for about ten seconds. Add salt, cumin seed, cayenne pepper, vinegar, olive oil. Whirl for additional ten seconds. Chill until icy cold.

GARNISH

1 green pepper, cut into small dice; 1 cucumber, diced; 1 ripe tomato, diced; 1small onion, chopped fine. Place each in a bowl, separately. Also fill one bowl with 1/2 lb. tiny bay shrimp and one bowl with garlic cheese croutons.
