Editor's Corner

In keeping with our continuing theme of highlighting folk dance groups, this month's cover story is about the Tuesday Gypsies, one of the Federations's oldest groups, which got its start in 1981.

This issue has more ads than usual (and therefore less articles). There are certainly a multitude of opportunities that dancers can take, and we encourage all of you to get out there and dance.

Since I have the space, I would like to digress and distinguish the common use of the term "gypsy" and the real gypsies, the Rom people.

Gypsies worldwide, more properly known as "Rom," are part of an ethnic group whose ancestors left India a thousand years ago. The internet web site www.advancenet.net/~jscole/gypsy.html states:

"There is a surprisingly small correlation between the "gypsy" stereotype and the real group of people called the Roma. It should be noted that the term "gypsy" is just as derogatory to this real group of people as "nigger", "lapp", or "sioux" is to other real peoples. Gypsy is only an accurate term to describe a fictional culture that never really existed outside the imagination of people who were never called that name."

A future Scene issue will focus on the Rom people.

Federation Corner

Dave and Fran Slater have been very active in Southern California folk dancing, not just for years, but for decades. They were among the few that started getting the rest of us interested many years ago. Their club went through several changes of names and locations (see article on Tuesday Gypsies), but has survived as one of the oldest continuous folk dance clubs in the Federation.

During these years, they have been among the 'pillars of the Federation'. Their offices and responsibilities are too numerous to list, but here are some of the highlights:

Among their Federation offices, Dave has been president, Fran has been treasurer, Dave was beginners' chair for years, and Fran did the Calendar for Scene. They both were active in the Federation Camp Hess Kramer, and contributed at various Statewides. For many summers they ran the successful Idyllwild Camp, where many of us got our first taste of a dance camp.

In addition to the Federation they both have been teachers, and held various offices at Westwood Co-op, and worked on their annual festivals.

In recent years they have slowed down a bit (haven't we all), but are still consistently at Tuesday Gypsies, where they have life memberships. And Dave calls squares and contras almost every week.

All of us in the Federation are the happy recipients of their many contributions.

Tuesday Gypsies

*Leo Markman, Sandy Helperin, Jill Michtom,
Leo Goldenblank, Gerda Ben-Zeev,
Forrest Gilmore, and Sybl Goldenblank,*

In the late 1970's, Dave and Fran Slater started an intermediate group on Friday evenings. After a year or two, the Slaters decided Friday was an inconvenient night for them, and they turned the class over to Nate Moore, a well-known teacher at the time.

In 1981, Dave and Fran started another class intended to be intermediate to advanced level; this time on Tuesday evenings. The class turned out to be a success, but not the location! Starting at an elementary school in Santa Monica, to a Junior High School, to a playground (at Stoner Park, where we were called the 'Stoner Stompers'), to Felicia Mahood Senior Center, and finally to the Masonic Temple on Venice Blvd., where we are now and have a very good wooden floor to dance on. As we were preparing to make one of our last moves, one of our members said, serendipitously, "We've been moving around so much, we ought to call ourselves "The Tuesday Gypsies"-so we did!

We continued under the Slater's tutelage until Dave retired as a dance teacher in December of 1992. At that point, the club made a great decision: there was such a warm and cohesive group spirit, they decided to continue as a club, with various members taking on the responsibilities of running the club.

We are still going strong, so, if you would like to try a different kind of dance group, visit us and see how you like it. We always enjoy welcoming visitors and new members.

— Dave Slater

Marian and Jim Fogle

The Tuesday Gypsies is an intermediate/advanced group that meets every Tuesday (except holidays) at the Masonic Club on Venice Blvd. Our dance programs are a mix of old and new dances, requiring various levels of exertion.

Originally, the group was run and taught by Dave and Fran Slater. When they retired, we decided to run the group ourselves rather than disband. We have continued to enjoy dancing, sharing the work among the members.

Teaching is done mostly by Gerda Ben-Zeev and Jim and Marian Fogle. Jim plays the music, Marlene Levine makes the programs, and Millicent Stein keeps us on the straight and narrow financially. The teachers attend camps and workshops to learn new dances.

Over the years we have had many good times. On holidays or on fifth Tuesdays we have a party. Folks bring treats, the program is "all-request", and on those nights we "dance out both our shoes" as the old song says. In times past we were accustomed to spend a weekend at Highland Hot Springs. We would eat, talk, dance, hike, shop, ride horseback, swim, play tennis, and dance more. A good time was had by all.

Currently we are still dancing up a storm. The new year will bring us a whole slew of dances old and new to learn and have fun with. If we're lucky, we'll have an evening or two with a master teacher when one is in town. We're looking forward to more and better dancing in 2003 and on. We invite all folk dancers to come and dance with us! We're a friendly group and we welcome newcomers and old friends alike.

— Marian Fogle

Alexander Strathspey

We all celebrated Gerri & Bob's Golden Anniversary last August. I took this opportunity and devised a dance entitled "The Alexander Strathspey", a 32-bar strathspey, just for this occasion. It seems proper to show this dance in the Scene to share with our folkdance friends so we can all celebrate Gerri and Bob's Golden Anniversary while enjoy dancing. Thanks and Happy dancing,

Reflections

*Edith Sewell, Gerda Ben-Zeev,
Marlene Levine, and Jill Michtom*

It was May 11, 1993-my first night at the Tuesday Gypsies. I cannot figure out why I remember that date but not the name of the guest teacher. I guess that day signifies the beginning of a great dance experience that has continued almost ten years.

Actually, I wouldn't have made it to the Gypsies at all that night had Gerda (ben-Zeev) not been so persistent in wanting me to give it a try.

Looking back, I am grateful for her interest and persistence. Over the years I have enjoyed knowing some wonderful "Gypsy" people, teachers and dancers as well as learning so many wonderful and exciting dances. I've also enjoyed dancing on that great wooden floor that I heard Theodor (Vasilescu) refer to (a couple of years ago) as the best floor in town.

Perhaps other dancers may want to give the Gypsies a try too and maybe find it as rewarding as I do.

— Marlene Levine

A country inn, hiking trails, swimming pool, comradeship, and dancing, too: it all adds up to a week-end with the Tuesday Gypsies at Highland Springs Resort.

There is never enough time to talk with each other on dance nights. In the middle of a sentence, we hear music we must answer and so it's excuse me and off to dance. To rectify the matter and get to know each other better, we arranged a week-end get-away. And enjoyed it so much we repeated it for ten years. During the days, we hiked, shopped, swam, talked, and ate.

After dinner, we danced for several hours in a rustic room called the Hitching Post. The evening did not end then. Hearty souls all, we retired to one of our large rooms for an after-party with good food and drink and more time to talk.

Each year had something different to offer: once it was learning lyrics and melody to sing with some of our dances. The year that the ballot measures were long and complex, we had a political discussion. There was plenty of time, even with all the planned activities, to lie around in sun or shade, read, pick apples.

We did not go to the resort last year. If there is interest, we will arrange to go again.

I'd always loved folk dancing but hadn't ever gotten involved. In 1981, I decided to try it. The first night I went to the Slaters' Tuesday night class hooked me. David's ability to break down a dance; communicate the styling details and transitions from one step to another impressed me so much. And Fran, at his side, demonstrating the styling elements of the various countries whose dance was being taught, showed me the differences in the dance idioms. What a pair they were (are)! I became an addict! Dave also mentored and encouraged me (and others) to try teaching. He was very patient in helping me to convert the way I learned a dance (by aping what I saw) to an understanding of teaching techniques. How to communicate the steps, style and rhythms of a dance; and, also, how to program an evening of dances. However, keeping up with the Tuesday night class was a challenge as they kept moving, hence the name "Tuesday Gypsies". Wherever they landed...I was there.

The extent of the Slaters' commitment to Folk Dancing was inspiring. They invited guest teachers whenever it was possible; giving those dancers who didn't attend camps or workshops (and those who did) an opportunity to learn directly from them. They served as Federation officers and on committees, they encouraged people to apply for camp/workshop scholarships; always promoting folk dancing. Their commitment was so contagious that when they decided to retire from teaching a regular Tuesday night class, we felt that we weren't ready to let it go. Some of us met and decided we'd take over the responsibilities of running the class. Fortunately, it's still going and from what I hear, David still teaches occasionally. Hooray for that!!!

Tuesday Gypsies

Jill Michtom, Ike Hasson, Sandy Helperin, Marian Fogle

I came to folkdancing later than many. I began taking beginners classes at Westwood Coop and at the Barr's Monday night classes. Being a passionate newcomer, I looked for every opportunity to dance I could find. However, The Tuesday Gypsies were an advanced group for a novice like me, so it was several years before I ventured to visit the group.

I was welcomed and encouraged to try all the dances. Dave taught so beautifully that most of the dances became accessible. I have enjoyed the friendships I have made while learning dances from Dave (before he retired), Marian and Jim Fogle, and Gerda Ben-Zeev. Our teachers attend many camps and keep us up to date on the latest dances.

We also often review dances that have started to "slip away". The group is informal and rather small, and like many other clubs, struggling to stay viable. We would love to have new members.

— Sandy Helperin

The Tuesdays Gypsies are great source of excellent dance repertoire, and many times outside dancers come to learn dances they take back to their own group. There are a number of excellent teachers.

Having said that, I have always admired Dave's manner and method of breaking down the steps in teaching a dance and more than once wished some of the celebrity "ethnic" dance teachers could have absorbed some of his methods. Hey, and what about the transitions from one phrase to the next set of steps. Another speciality of Dave's. No, he is not another Nijinsky, but a great dance communicator.

LAS VEGAS TEACHER TRAINING SEMINAR CANCELLED

We regret to inform everyone that the Teacher Training Seminar scheduled for March 22 & 23 in Las Vegas will have to be cancelled. Dick Oakes, who will share the teaching with Richard Duree, recently had a third surgery and was forced to admit that the March date was too soon for full recovery.

Rather than replace Dick, we decided to cancel the seminar for this year. We will consider having a Teacher Training Seminar in the future and will publish information in Scene.

STATEWIDE 2003 – A VILLAGE FAIRE

This year's Statewide Festival is trying a new approach. Rather than having master teachers and a workshop atmosphere, our teachers will come from a variety of folk dance clubs throughout the state. and the theme of Village Faire will be carried through all weekend. Each club will represent its "village" and is being asked to share a favorite dance with those from neighboring "villages" who do not know or remember the dance.

We are also hoping to have musicians from the "villages" (as well as professional musicians) to provide entertainment and some live music for dancing. Ask your club to participate in the festive atmosphere that will be created. And most importantly, be sure to attend!

Statewide is being presented by the Folk Dance Federation of Southern California this year, in Pasadena, at the Scottish Rite Cathedral, at 150 Madison Ave. The celebrations will go on over Memorial Day weekend, from Friday evening, May 23rd, through Sunday afternoon, May 26th.

ALEKSANDAR SARIEVSKI

I heard the sad news from Ljupka Kolarova that the great Macedonian singer Aleksandar Sarievski died several days ago. He had been in ill health for an extended period. Perhaps the most famous recording of his for American folk dancers is "Zajko Kokorajko" which many use to accompany the dance "Arap".

Sarievski was a native of Galicnik, famous for its summer mass weddings of returning pecalbari (men who go abroad for work). More recently, he resided in the Topaana district of Skopje, the old Rom quarter.

NEW DANCE BOOK BY TONY SHAY

Anthony Shay, founding artistic director of Avaz International Dance Theatre, has just won a prize for his new book, "Choreographic Politics: State Folk Dance Companies" from the 2003 Congress on Research in Dance. "The book," Shay says, deals with "how national dance companies like the Moiseyev...are created and developed within a social ethnic and gendered environment, and how these purport to represent their nation-state..."

In addition to the award, which will be presented to him in August, he received a grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities for a second book. That work will cover immigrant dance culture in the USA. "Choreographic Politics" can be ordered from Borders, or Amazon.com.

DANCE ON THE WATER CRUISES

Mel Mann announces and updates his popular DANCE ON THE WATER folk dance cruises for 2003.

Unfortunately the 18th Annual Alaska Folk Dance Cruise that was scheduled for July 23 has been CANCELED by the cruiseline since they lost the use of their ship. Negotiations to lease another ship recently broke down and as a result World Explorer will use the year 2003 to locate another ship to resume operating beginning in 2004.

Signups for the Yangtze River/China Folk Dance Cruise are going very well and only five cabins remain in the groups allocation. This popular bargain cruise will begin on June 16 and end July 3rd. The group will visit Shanghai, Chongking, Xi'an and Beijing. The major attractions to be visited include the Terra Cotta Warriors, Great Wall, Tian'anmen Square, Forbidden City, Ming Tomb, Summer Palace, Beijing Opera and many more events.

Folk dancing will be led by the master teacher, Sandy Starkman and of course Mel Mann will be escorting the group with the help of tour managers. For more detailed information contact Mel Mann at (510) 526-4033 or by e-mail at meldancing@aol.com. DO NOT DELAY AS THERE IS LIMITED SPACE LEFT.

FREE WEB PAGES FROM DICK OAKES

Little by little I am doing a Federation web page for those Member Clubs and Associate Organizations who do not have their own websites yet.

They are simple static one-pagers that have more information than just the club listing, and they are all of a kind, nothing special--no flyers, no list of links, no officers and committees, no events, but will include a link to Yahoo! maps for their location. (By static, I mean that once a web page is up and approved by a group, there shouldn't be alterations, unless a meeting place or time changes, for example.)

What I need from the remaining clubs for whom I have not created a page yet is a club logo (official or not) and a descriptive blurb about the club. I also want a contact e-mail address for every Member Club and Associate Organization. I need an e-mail address, not only for people to make web contact, but also so I don't have to make long distance calls from Colorado!

The clubs I have made pages for so far are Dunaj, Laguna, Ojai, Veselo Selo, and Westwood. I did those because I was able to come up with a logo of some sort for them. I also have a logo or design for Scandia and West Valley, so will work on those next.

I have been putting non-Federation clubs, groups, and classes in the listing and, although I won't be doing "free" Federation pages for them, would like a contact e-mail address for each of those clubs, too. I welcome any other groups who want to send me their information--I've been searching the World Wide Web to find what I have there now.

Doing a website is really a simple thing to do and I'm hoping all of our Member Clubs and Associate Organizations will take the hint and put up their own websites. If they do, they can use my one-pagers as the basis for their sites. (To see how easy a page is to make, in your browser select View, Source, and you'll find it's nothing but a text file with a few tags in angle brackets and such. Compare to how the page shows in the browser to see how the tags do their work. There are tutorials on the web! Of course, there are inexpensive web authoring tools that allow you to create pages without doing the tag coding, too.) Send your info to: DickOakes@PhantomRanch.net, www.PhantomRanch.net.

TRAVEL & DANCE TO BRANSON

By popular request, we are planning another trip to Branson in May, 2003. We will be there during the International World Fest. Dancers and Musicians from countries around the world will be there to entertain. This tour will include show tickets, meals, lodging, transportation, and touring many sights in St. Louis, Kansas City, and the Ozarks, as well as fun in Branson. We will fly to Missouri and then have an air-conditioned, deluxe motorcoach to transport us to the theaters and touring. Each time we go to Branson we add new sights and see many new shows, so it is very exciting even if you did it before. It is a very different kind of trip. Travelers go back over and over because it is such a fun trip. If you want more information, call Beverly at (310) 202-6166.
