BELE KAWE

(A Creole dance with steps of African and French Origin)

Record: ALBUM AR 36 - African Heritage Dances
Educational Activities Inc., Activity Records.

Formation: No partners - open formation, all facing forward.

THE DANCE -- No Introduction.

1. M's back of hands on back pockets, W holds skirt ('magi' every long skirt) in front of body and shakes ruffles vigorously throughout following footwork:

Both M and W:

- (a) Step forward on R ft, knees bent (as if stepping into a hole), step backward on L ft, step together with R.
- (b) Repeat (a), starting with L ft.

Do 8 of the above steps in all.

2. With arms high to the side, extend R heel to side on floor, looking at it, then step on the R ft. Repeat extending L heel to side on floor (going backward a little bit), looking at it, then step on L ft.

Do 8 of these heel-steps in all, moving backward for  $\frac{1}{2}$  of them and then forward for  $\frac{1}{2}$ .

3. With arms extended straight out from shoulder, moving to the R, step R,L,R, bending knees and making a low-side turn. On the 5th count, hold the position (you have made a complete turn and are facing forward at this point). There should be no sound of shuffling feet during this turn! Repeat the turn to the Left, starting with the L ft.

Do 4 of these turns in all.

REPEAT DANCE FROM THE BEGINNING.
