

JIG ARGLWYDD CAERNARFON (Lord of Carnavon's Jig) 16 bar Reel

ALEXANDER HAMILTON WELSH

Form: Longways set for four couples; proper.
Use walking step except where stepping is indicated.

A1 All face the Harp (head of the hall), inside hands joined with partner.
Forward a double and back (4 steps fwd and 4 steps bwd) two times.

B1 Gypsy. Partners join little fingers of right hands, arms held straight down at sides, and walk around 8 steps.
Gypsy with left hands joined.

A2 First Couple Lead Thru: First couple face down, join right hands, lead down between second couple, cross over, lady passing in front of partner; pass outside the set, behind third couple, and back into the set below them; join left hands with partner and cross over, passing between the fourth couple to foot of the set.

B2 Cast the Line UP: Ladies follow the active lady, men follow the active man, up outside of set and fall into places, last couple turning outward. Couples now arranged: Harp - 1, 4, 3, 2. Two-hand turn partner once and a half around to opposite side of the dance.

All face away from the Harp, and repeat the dance with Couple 2 leading. Each couple will lead in turn. At end of fourth time thru, all will be in beginning places.