

Jubilee Jig

(Scotland)

The Jubilee Jig is a 32 bar jig for 3 couples. It was presented by Jennifer Kelly at the Heritage Festival Institute in Burlingame, Jan. 1991.

RECORD: World Records WRC1 2626, Northern Jubilee, Bobby Frew Trio;
Any suitable phrased 8x32 bar jig. 6/8 meter

FORMATION: 4 Cpl in Lgwy formation.

STEPS and Skip change of step*, cast down*, set*, move up*, bow and curtsey*,
STYLING: wrong side* See general styling in the Scottish Glossary.

Skip change of step is used throughout unless otherwise directed.

*Described in the Scottish Glossary of Steps and Styling, published by the Folk Dance

MUSIC	6/8 meter	PATTERN
-------	-----------	---------

Measures

Chord INTRODUCTION M bow, W curtsey.

I. CAST DOWN AND SET

- 1-2 Beg R, M 1 cast down into 2nd place, as M 2 moves up into 1st place.
- 3-4 M 1 and W 3 set twd each other.
- 5-8 M 1 and W 3 turn by R hands once CW and back to place.
- 9-10 Beg R, W 1 cast down into 2nd place, as W 2 moves up into 1st place.
- 11-12 W 1 and M 3 set twd each other.
- 13-16 W 1 and M 3 turn by L hands once CW to place.

II. HANDS ACROSS AND SET

- 1-4 Beg R, W 1 dance up to Cpl 2, as M 1 dance down to Cpl 3. Turn once CW with R hands across. Releasing R hands, Cpl 1 end in the center of the set with L hands joined, facing wrong side.
- 5-8 Cpl 1 set. Release hands and dance out to the wrong side in 2nd place.
- 9-12 Beg R, W 1 dance down to Cpl 3 as M 1 dance up to Cpl 2. Turn once CW with R hands across. Releasing R hands, Cpl 1 end in the center of the set with L hands joined, facing own side.
- 13-16 Cpl 1 set. Release hands and dance out to own side in 2nd place.

The Jubilee Jig - pg 2

32 meas Cpl 1 repeat the dance with Cpls 3 and 4. M 1 may end in 2nd place and beg with the cast down or eliminate the cast and dance directly down into 3rd place. At the end Cpl 1 dance to the bottom of the set on the outside, as Cpl 4 move up.

Dance the pattern as written from the beginning with Cpls 2, 3 and 4 active each in turn.

Chord M bow, W curtsy.

© Folk Dance Federation of California, Inc. January 1991