

"La Patru Chindji Marmare"

(Metsovo, Epiros)

The name "La Patru Chindji (Tsintzi) Marmare" is the title of a Vlach song known throughout the scattered Vlach (Aroman) communities of Greece and the Southern Balkans. In Metsovo it is one of the several songs used for their most characteristic (and nameless) dance, related in step pattern to their couple dance Synathisto.

Rhythmic pulses: S q | S q S
1 2 3 4 5

"W" or crooked-elbow (teapot) hold, often in separate lines for W and M.

Presented by: Joe Graziosi, 2000
JGraziosi/LPiron