

TRUSA
(Bosnian, Yugoslavia)

- SOURCE: Learned by Elsie Dunin from Jelena Dopuda at a seminar on Dinaric Mountain Dances in Yugoslavia, 1967. This is a "silent dance". (no vocal or instrumental music accompanies the dance)
- FORMATION: Open circle, with leader on R end. Joined hands are held down at sides. Each fig is repeated until the leader changes to a new fig in any order. Style note: Steps are large and wide, and all movements are performed heavily and deliberately.
